

Guidelines for Solidarity Events on April 2, 2017

Not near a city or town with a planned United Farm Workers march? Here's what you can do to show solidarity with farm workers everywhere.

Want to plan a March or Rally but don't know where to get started? Check out this checklist for Marches at <http://action.ufw.org/page/-/doca.pdf> and Guidelines for Solidarity Marches <http://action.ufw.org/page/-/docb.pdf> Share your event info here <https://secure.ufw.org/page/event/create>

- A. Want to join a nearby march? Go to <http://action.ufw.org/resistmarches> or follow us on Facebook to find your nearest march. Grab your fellow marchers and show up at designated place ready to march. Most marches are about 2 miles long so wear comfy shoes, a hat and sunscreen. Don't forget your poster or UFW flag. March merchandise can be purchased at www.ufwstore.com
- B. Virtual Marcher- can't march, but want to participate anyways, download one of our UFW FB signs, take a picture with all of your friends and post it on your Facebook and/or Twitter pages. Please remember to use the #Resist, #WeFeedYou #CesarChavez hashtags so we can find it. Go to <http://action.ufw.org/resistmarches> to download the sign.
- C. Join our Cesar Chavez #Resist Trump Thunderclap with your Facebook and/or Twitter accounts. Thunderclap is a powerful platform that helps people be heard by sharing a message at the same moment so it rises above the chatter of Twitter and Facebook. It literally takes a minute to sign up for both Twitter & Facebook and to share the campaign @ @ <http://thndr.me/3wdn9Kvia>. Then on Cesar's March 31 birthday, at 9 am PST, the message supporting his farm workers' #CesarChavez #Resist Trump marches goes out at the same time on the feeds of everyone who signed up flash mob-style.
- D. Donate to help fund these farm worker #Resist Trump Cesar Chavez marches at <http://action.ufw.org/resistmarch>
- E. Host workshops with other organizations.
